TOWN HALL THEATRE UNVEILS 80TH MAIN STAGE SEASON AND FIRST YOUTH SEASON WITH EXCITING ANNOUNCEMENT PARTY

February 5th, 2024– Town Hall Theatre is thrilled to invite our community to celebrate with us at our Season Announcement Party on March 2, 2024, 2:00 PM to 4 PM at our esteemed venue. Come celebrate with us as we unveil our highly anticipated 80th season with a theme that delves into the heart of humanity: "Family: Born into and Chosen."

Come enjoy cocktails and live music in our lobby from the Contra Costa Performing Arts Society at 2:00pm. Then at 3:00pm come upstairs where our Artistic Director Richard Perez and Education Director Erika March unveil the exciting and engaging selections for the 80th Main Stage Season as well as the first ever Youth Stage Season. This free program will feature sneak peek scenes from our upcoming Main Stage season's plays, information about how to participate in the Youth Stage Season, and be capped off with live performances from our friends at Front Porch Presents. From heartwarming tales of familial bonds to gripping narratives of chosen families, our 80th season promises to inspire, entertain, and resonate with audiences of all ages.

Don't miss your chance to be among the first to experience the magic of our upcoming productions and join us in celebrating this milestone season. Admission to the Season Announcement Party is free, but reservations are required to secure your spot at this highly anticipated event. To reserve your place and be part of the excitement, please RSVP at <https://www.townhalltheatre.com/2024-2025-season>.

Join us as we embark on a journey through the power of family, both born into and chosen, and mark the beginning of a remarkable 80th season at Town Hall Theatre. We can't wait to share this unforgettable experience with you!
